

Satellite radio should have the same rights as all other broadcasters. As I have been an avid listener and supporter of xm radio from the start, I feel they should have the right to explore new areas as any of the news and entertainment fields do. To block certain genres in order to control or limit their abilities is unamerican. Thank-you, Wayne Nocella